

Thanks to SSE for hosting this event

Transitions
Accessing the skills of refugee professionals
Community Interest Company

school for social entrepreneurs
celebrating 20 years

Refugee-supporting Social Enterprise in supply chains (commissioning and community investment)

Date: Wednesday 22nd November 2017 Time: 12.00-3.00pm

Venue: School for Social Entrepreneurs The Fire Station, 139 Tooley Street, London, SE1 2HZ

A light lunch will be provided

Objectives – to explore:

- UK Landscape for social enterprises and responsible corporates
- Action Learning Sets to collaboratively explore problems/solutions
- Action Planning

PROGRAMME

12.00 - 12.15	Registration/refreshments Welcome by SSE and Transitions /Introductions
12.15 - 12.30	Social Enterprise UK: Landscape for UK social enterprise David McGlashan, School for Social Entrepreneurs
12.30 - 12.50	Small groups: brainstorm key points of strengths/barriers to social enterprise delivery. Whole table discussion
12.50 - 1.10	Landscape for responsible Corporate commissioning: Ben & Jerry's project with TERN Charlie Fraser, TERN (refugee entrepreneurs) and Chris Gale, Unilever European Social Mission Strategy & Policy Manager
1.10 - 1.30	Light lunch. Thanks to Oliver Wyman for sponsoring the lunch
1.30 - 2.15	Small groups: Collaborative Action Learning Sets
2.15-2.30	Round table: review/discussions
2.30 - 3.00	Final comments/Networking

To book: contact Sheila Heard at <sheila.heard@transitions-london.co.uk> or 020 86424431/ 07866 257421