

Transitions

Accessing the skills of refugee professionals

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE RECRUITMENT AGENCIES-THE BUSINESS CASE

Date: Friday 22nd April 2016 Time: 10.00-1.00pm

Venue: Centre for Social Impact, 2nd Floor, 139 Tooley Street, London SE1 2HZ

Suitable for employers, social enterprises and funders

Objectives:

Exchange of information, challenges & strategies around:

- UK Landscape for social enterprises providing recruitment agency services
- How social enterprises can help marginalised jobseekers into employment
- Business case for employers’ use of social enterprise recruitment services-views of Employers
- Marginalised jobseekers’ challenges and successes
- Informing potential funders of social enterprise recruitment agencies

PROGRAMME

10.00 - 10.15

Registration/tea/coffee/

10.15 - 10.30

Welcome/Introductions –

-Social Enterprise UK: Landscape for social enterprise recruitment services Liz Minns, Membership Officer

10.30 - 10.50

Managing Diversity & Inclusion in hiring processes: Improving access to employment for marginalised jobseekers/role of social enterprise recruitment

Kevin Bowsher, Diversity & Inclusion Manager, Network Rail,

10.50 - 11.10

Break with refreshments

11.10 - 11.30

Social enterprise recruitment services: challenges/solutions

John Blackmore, CEO Action West London,
Sheila Heard, Director Transitions London CIC

11.30 - 12.15

Small groups: Guided discussion/exchange of issues, good practice, ways forward

12.15-12.30

Feedback/Action Planning

12.30 - 13.00

Final comments/Networking

To book: contact Sheila Heard at <sheila.heard@transitions-london.co.uk> or 020 86424431/ 07866 257421