

Transitions' Stakeholders' Seminar #19:
Exploring Assessment and Equivalencing
Qualifications and Experience of refugee Graduate engineers

Thanks to Carillion for hosting this seminar

Date: Thurs 16th March 2017 Time: 2.00pm-5.00pm

Venue: Carillion, London

Exchange of information, challenges & strategies around:

- UK landscape for equivalencing overseas engineering qualifications and experience
- Refugee Engineers' Jobsearch challenges and successes
- Strategies to include refugee engineers in recruitment pipelines to address skills shortages and demonstrate inclusion

Who is invited?

- 15-20 stakeholders: Engineering employers, Engineering Professional bodies, Naric, trade organisations, candidates, other social enterprises, statutory body staff, others with interest in & knowledge of the subject of skills assessment

PROGRAMME

2.00 - 2.15

Registration/Refreshments
Welcome/Introductions

2.15 - 2.45

Transitions London CIC & Refugee Engineer candidate: Assessing & presenting skills to the UK Engineering jobs market: challenges and successes. Q&A's

2.45 - 3.15

Engineering Council:
David Clark, Engineering Council, International Affairs Manager *Securing & maintaining standards comparability to enable professional mobility. Q&A's

Break with refreshments

3.00 - 3.30

Naric:
Lisa Collett, Naric Head of Global Division. *Naric services for assessing and accredit overseas qualifications. Q&A's

3.45 - 4.30

Small groups: Guided discussion/exchange of issues, good practice

4.30 - 5.00pm

Final comments/Networking

To book: contact Transitions at <enquiries@transitions-london.co.uk> or 020 86424431/ 07866 257421